1. Description of Services and Fees

FUN2LITE is a video messaging application-based service that provides users where users can meet people from all over the world, make video calls, and share a part of their lives with their followers by opening live broadcasts.

Users can benefit from the paid services offered by FUN2LITE at their own discretion. Users can unsubscribe from the Services at any time.

Different fees may be determined and arranged for different countries while purchasing. The user will be notified about the fee before the purchase. However, if users change their settings in their own accounts and select a different country, the notified fees may vary. Fees notified to the user are arranged according to the country which they have selected in the account settings.

We wish you to be completely satisfied with our services. Malfunctions may be encountered from time to time. We are working on solving the problems that our users encountered by making maintenance and by other actions taken by us to provide you an issueless use of our services.

Some features of our Services in our website may differ from the features in our mobile application.

To use the FUN2LITE service, you must have Internet access, a device that supports FUN2LITE, and provide us with one or more Payment Methods. “Payment Method” means an existing, valid, recognized payment method, which you may update from time to time and which may include payment through your account through a third party. Unless you cancel your membership through third party payment companies before the billing date, you authorize these companies to collect the membership fee of the next billing period through the Payment Method you have chosen.

We may offer several different membership plans, including special promotional plans or memberships offered by third parties in conjunction with their products or services. FUN2LITE cannot be held responsible for products or services offered by such third parties. Some membership plans may have different terms and limitations that will be disclosed at the time you sign up for the service or in other communications made available to you.

If you have used third parties as a Payment Method and wish to cancel your FUN2LITE subscription, you may need to do so through that third party: For example, by accessing your account with that third party and turning off auto-renewal, or opting out of the FUN2LITE service through that third party.
